

SCUT EMI 2 first quiz

---

What is a Venn diagram used for?

✂ - - - - -

What does HOTS and LOTS stand for?

✂ - - - - -

How do we use Bloom's taxonomy when we are lesson planning? (Hint: verbs)

✂ - - - - -

What is the top level in the (revised) Bloom's Taxonomy? What are some activities at this level?

✂ - - - - -

Why do we observe and study the verbs that go with nouns in a text?

✂ - - - - -

What are three ways you could use SKELL?

✂ - - - - -

What is SKELL? How big is the SKELL corpus?

✂ - - - - -

Who cleans up the language in corpora so that there are no mistakes or taboo language?

✂ - - - - -

Does Concordle have its own corpus, or do we insert our own text?

✂ - - - - -

Why is using a corpus like asking a thousand native speakers?

✂ - - - - -

What is the relationship between data and information?

✂ - - - - -

Do teachers teach data, information or knowledge?

✂ - - - - -

Is information stable? If not, what causes it to change?

✂ - - - - -

Why reasons are there for using English as a medium of instruction?

✂ - - - - -

Why do EMI lessons take longer to prepare?

✂ - - - - -

What are the objectives of EMI?

✂ - - - - -

In the flipped classroom, what do students do at home to prepare for a lesson?

✂ - - - - -

How can the flipped classroom help weaker students?

✂ - - - - -

Linear Unit Grammar divides language into two types of chunks: what are they?

✂ - - - - -

In Linear Unit Grammar, are the key words of the text in the Message chunks?

✂ - - - - -

What role does "teacher expectation" play in student achievement?

✂ - - - - -

Where is the tip of your tongue at the beginning of /th/?

✂ - - - - -

Why might students create SSTs for each topic they study in a course?

✂ - - - - -

Pronounce "law and order" with the correct linking. Now explain the linking you just did.

✂ - - - - -

When speaking, do we link words which start with (a) consonants or (b) with vowels?

✂ - - - - -

How many topic trails are there in a text?

✂ - - - - -

Are the words in topic trails part of Message language or Organisation/Orientation language?

✂ - - - - -