

Discovering Vocabulary and the Company it Keeps

A one-week intensive course at our place or yours

James Thomas

Discovering Vocabulary and the Company it Keeps

This is a one-week course for English language teachers in secondary schools, universities, independent language schools and for private teachers. It deals with many aspects of vocabulary such as collocation and vocabulary patterns through free online tools. Teachers learn how to use them and how to integrate them into their teaching. The course also deals with errors, modes of study and learner autonomy. Course participants assemble a portfolio of resources.

Practical matters

Dates This is an on-demand course. It opens when there are five or more enrollees.

Venue (a) in Brno at CA Institute or (b) at your place anywhere in the world.

Individual course fee: 400 Euros per week, including registration. Erasmus+ funding is available for this course.

Details are available on the course website: http://bit.ly/DVCK_CA
Email info@ca-institute.com to find out more.

About the trainer

This course is created and taught by James Thomas. From 1997 to 2016, James was a lecturer in a range of ELT related subjects at Masaryk University. Since 2002, James taught intensive courses at NILE (UK) and the British Council. In 2010 he won an ELTon and in 2015 founded Versatile (see versatile.pub).

About CA Institute

CA Institute of Languages was established in 1997 and is EAQUALS accredited. We have met the high standards required for Eaquls accreditation. Our teaching, the course programs, as well as the course organization, the learning resources, testing and evaluation were all judged to be of high quality. CA Institute of Languages takes great care to protect the welfare of its clients and staff, and all publicity materials produced by the institution are accurate and truthful.

